The services of Holy Week transform us into eyewitnesses and direct participants in the awesome events of the Passion and Resurrection of Jesus Christ. In readings taken from both Old and New Testaments, in hymns, processions, and liturgical commemoration, we see the fulfillment of the Messianic prophecies, and the mighty acts by which God Himself, in the person of Jesus Christ, grants us forgiveness for our sins, and rescues us from the pain of eternal death.

– Rev. Fr. Andrew Demotses

Having completed the soul-profiting forty days, we pray that we might also behold the holy week of Thy Passion, O Friend of man, that therein we may glorify Thy mighty deeds and Thine ineffable dispensation for us, who chant with one accord: O Lord, glory be to Thee.
Lazarus Saturday

April 27th

Orthros - 8:30am
Divine Liturgy - 9:30am

The momentum of Holy Week begins here, with a foretaste of the Lord’s Resurrection. Christ raises Lazarus from the dead, and we celebrate this remarkable event with a Liturgy and joyful hymns. Following Liturgy we have our traditional pancake breakfast, then clean and decorate the church in preparation for Palm Sunday and Holy Week.

Young Families: This is a beautiful day that we pour into our children as we offer them a special breakfast, teach them the tradition of folding palms, and how to prepare the Church for Palm Sunday. Fr. Gabriel has also set aside time during these activities when he will offer youth confessions.
Palm Sunday

April 28th

Orthros - 8:30 am
Divine Liturgy - 9:30 am

On Palm Sunday, Christ enters Jerusalem, and the people proclaim Him as king - but in an earthly sense, because the people of His time were seeking a political Messiah. Our Lord is King, of course, but much mightier than any earthly ruler.

So on this Sunday, we carry palms like the people long ago in a procession around the church, singing:

In confirming the common Resurrection, O Christ God,
Thou didst raise up Lazarus from the dead before Thy Passion.
Wherefore, we also, like the children, bearing the symbols of victory, cry to Thee, the Vanquisher of death:
Hosanna in the highest; blessed is He that cometh in the Name of the Lord.

In this, we show that we too accept Jesus as the true King, Who we are willing to follow - even to the cross. The palm leaves we carry in procession are blessed, and many families fold them into a cross, and take them home to keep in their prayer corner.

Following the Palm Sunday liturgy our Philoptochos hosts a fish fundraiser feast.

Young Families:
Children now see the importance of their hard work from the previous day preparing the Palm Crosses! They will join in the procession bearing their palms!
Beginning on the evening of Palm Sunday and continuing through the evening of Holy Tuesday, the Orthodox Church observes a special service known as the Service of the Bridegroom. Each evening service is the Matins or Orthros service of the following day (e.g., the service held on Sunday evening is the Orthros service for Holy Monday). The name of the service is from the figure of the Bridegroom in the parable of the Ten Virgins found in Matthew 25:1-13. Christ is the Bridegroom who unconditionally loves His bride, each and every one of us. This unconditional love causes Him to voluntarily lay down His life for us so that we may all live with Him eternally in His Resurrection. These beautiful and unique services set the somber and hopeful feeling of Holy Week.
On the afternoon of Great and Holy Wednesday the Sacrament of Holy Unction is conducted in our parish. At the conclusion of the service, each person is anointed with oil, and the grace of God, which heals infirmities of soul and body, is called down upon each person. While Orthodox Christians may receive this sacrament at any time they are sick, during Holy Week, all the faithful receive it for healing in preparation for the Lord’s death. We also remember that shortly before His Crucifixion, our Lord was anointed by a certain woman in preparation for His coming burial. The holy oil from this service is saved and used to anoint the sick throughout the year. We should prepare for this service in a prayerful way as we do for Holy Communion, including participating in the sacrament of confession.

At this service we begin our commemoration of Holy Thursday when the Lord celebrates the Mystical Supper with His disciples and is then arrested. Towards the end of the service, the anointing of unction is offered for those who did not receive it earlier in the evening.
Great and Holy Thursday

May 2nd

Liturgy of the Mystical Supper - 9:30 am

On Thursday of Holy Week four events are commemorated: the washing of the disciples’ feet, the institution of the Sacrament of the Holy Eucharist at the Last Supper, the agony in the garden of Gethsemane, and the betrayal of Christ by Judas. In the morning, we serve the Vesperal Liturgy of St. Basil commemorating the Last Supper, that is the first Mystical Supper when Jesus washed His disciples’ feet and instituted the Eucharist (or Holy Communion). We sing:

Receive me today, Son of God, as a partaker of Your mystical Supper. I will not reveal Your mystery to Your adversaries. Nor will I give You a kiss as did Judas. But as the thief I confess to You: Lord, remember me in Your Kingdom.

12 Passion Gospels - 6:00 pm

The service of the Twelve Passion Gospels remembers the solemn time of our Lord’s Crucifixion. As we read each of the 12 gospels we light a candle at the front of the church.

After the reading of the fifth Gospel, the holy cross is carried around the church in procession, and Christ’s body is nailed to the cross in the center of the church. The faithful are invited to come venerate the cross.

The 12 Gospel readings make this service a little long. However, it helps to know that they are arranged from longest to shortest, so the last six go faster than the first six.
Great and Holy Friday

May 3rd

Royal Hours - 9:30 am

On Holy Friday morning, we again contemplate the crucifixion, reading the accounts of the four evangelists. Following the service, our community gathers for the decorating of the Kouvouklion (Christ’s tomb) and the preparation of the Church for the the days ahead. This includes preparing candles and bay leaves to be used and decorating the entire Church with flowers.

Vespers of the Taking Down from the Cross - 3:00 pm

We know from the Holy Gospels that our Lord hung on the cross from 12pm to 3pm. Thus, in the afternoon, we take down the icon of Christ’s body from the cross and wrap it in a new, white linen sheet. This act commemorates the removal of Christ’s body from the cross by Joseph of Arimathea. Later in the service, the Epitaphios, with the icon of Christ’s body, is carried in procession and placed in the Kouvouklion.

Lamentations - 6:00 pm

In the evening we celebrate the Lamentations service, or the funeral of our Lord. We gather around the Epitaphios which depicts Christ’s body surrounded by those that loved Him who are lamenting his death, and we join them in singing funeral hymns for our Lord who willingly was sacrificed for us.

Towards the end of the service, we carry the Epitaphios around the church in a funeral procession, just as He was carried to His tomb. The people re-enter the church by going under the bier, an act reminiscent of our baptism and our union with Christ as He goes down into Hades.

Young Families:
This is a special time when children participate in preparations for the services of our Lord’s crucifixion and learn firsthand the meaning of our traditions. Their involvement in flower and candle preparations are especially important as they get to participate in the use of them later in the evening! Young girls are invited to dress in a white dress to be one of the myrrh-bearers who toss rose petals around the Kouvouklion during the Lamentations service.
Great and Holy Saturday

May 4th

Liturgy of the Descent into Hades - 9:30am

On Great and Holy Saturday the Orthodox Church commemorates Christ’s descent into Hades while His body appears to be resting in the tomb. Orthodox Christians understand this rest as the fulfillment of God’s rest in Genesis 2:2. This great day is the day on which God rested — in the tomb, which Orthodox Christians understand as the fulfillment of God’s rest in Genesis 2:2. During the service the priest joyfully strews laurel leaves and rose petals throughout the church during the service, because in the ancient world laurel leaves were a sign of victory. As the leaves are strewn, the choir chants “Arise O God and Judge the earth, for to Thee belong all the nations.” He is vanquishing Hades, death, and the devil. The resurrection is near!

Vigil of Great and Holy Pascha - 11:30pm

Late in the evening we gather like the myrrh-bearing women to visit the Lord’s tomb, and we begin the Paschal vigil and witness His Resurrection which occurred in the middle of the night.

At midnight all lights in the church are turned off and all the candles put out. This is the darkness and silence of the tomb. Finally the priest comes out of the altar with a candle while singing, “Come receive the light from the light that is never overtaken by the night, come and glorify Christ risen from the dead.” Everyone comes forward and lights a candle from this light. Carrying the candles, we make an outdoor procession to the front door of the church. There we hear the greeting “Christ is Risen!” for the first time and reply, “Truly He is Risen!” We go into the well-lit church and sing the joyous Paschal Orthros and break the Lenten fast with the Divine Liturgy, and receive the Body and Blood of the Risen Lord.

After this service, the priest blesses our Pascha baskets, and we go to the parish hall to find the tables sagging with every kind of good food, celebrating together until quite late.

Young Families:
The midnight service is such an exciting time for children as they attend “middle of the night Church”! The excitement of receiving the light, triumphantly singing our Resurrection hymn, and proclaiming “Christ is Risen” for the first time is always a memorable experience!

May 5th

Agape Vespers - 12:00pm

There is no morning service because the midnight service was the Sunday Liturgy. However, we gather for the joyous Paschal Agape Vespers in the afternoon. During this service we read the Resurrection Gospel in many languages to celebrate how the Gospel was spread throughout the world. Members are invited to read the Gospel in any language they speak so that we represent as many languages as possible! After the service, we continue feasting with our Pascha picnic.

Followed by the, ‘Pascha Picnic’

Young Families:
All children are invited to join our annual Easter Egg Hunt following the service.
